Grant of Copyright License

Paper Title:
Authors:

The "Conference Submission" is an abbreviation for the paper with the title and authors from above, a one-page abstract and additional information (like a Modelica library) submitted with the paper.

The undersigned hereby grants to the Modelica Association a worldwide, royalty-free, nonexclusive, sub-licensable license to do the following:

1. to reproduce the Conference Submission in copies, either alone or as part of a collective work
2. to distribute or communicate copies of the Conference Submission to the public
3. to perform the Conference Submission publicly
4. to display the Conference Submission publicly.

The author(s) warrant(s) that the Conference Submission is the author's original work and that this copyright license to the Modelica Association does not infringe any third parties' rights.

If the paper was prepared jointly with other authors, the signing author hereby confirms that he has informed the co-author(s) of the terms of this copyright license. The signing author further warrants to be authorized to sign this agreement on behalf of the co-author(s). If copyright is held by the employer, it is understood that the author signs with the authorization of the employer and the employer's acceptance of the terms of this license.

Any action or suit relating to this License may be brought only in the courts of the jurisdiction wherein the Modelica Association resides and under the laws of that jurisdiction excluding its conflict-of-law provisions. The application of the United Nations Convention on Contracts of the International Sale of Goods is expressly excluded. This provision shall survive the termination of this License.
